

ASEAN Youth Video Competition:
“ASEAN Against Trafficking: Humans are not for Sale”

Application Details

Background and Introduction

ASEAN’s firm commitment to combat trafficking in persons (TIP) can be seen through its adoption of various instruments with the latest being the ASEAN Convention Against Trafficking in Persons, Especially Women and Children (ACTIP) which has entered into force in March 2017. Further, the ASEAN Human Rights Declaration (AHRD) expressed ASEAN’s firm understanding of human trafficking as an infringement of human rights, as stated in article 13 of the AHRD.

Based on the above commitments, the ASEAN Intergovernmental Commission on Human Rights (AICHR) and the Committee of Permanent Representatives to ASEAN (CPR) are pleased to announced the launch of a region-wide Youth Video Competition with the theme “ASEAN Against Trafficking: Humans are not for Sale!”. The Competition is designed to raise awareness of ASEAN youth on the inter-relatedness between human rights and trafficking in persons (TIP).

We invite youth citizens of ASEAN to submit a 3 – 5 minute video to express their view on the importance of fighting human trafficking, and the need for collaborative efforts in fighting human trafficking which constitutes a violation of human rights.

The Competition consists of three (3) categories: national level, regional level and a people’s choice award. The Winners for the Regional and People’s Choice Award will be invited to the 31st ASEAN Summit in November 2017 in the Philippines.
